

Gentlemen:

I find it outrageous that Sinclair Broadcasting is requiring their stations to air a mendacious, partisan documentary ("Stolen Honor") shortly before the election.

This clearly contravenes their obligation to use the public airwaves in the public interest, and is one more reason to resist the increasing concentration of media ownership.

If, as A.J. Liebling once observed, freedom of the press is a right enjoyed only by those who own one, then any pretense of democracy becomes transparently false.

Cordially,
Dr. Gary Wren
